

Boyd Meets Girl combines the thrilling virtuosity of two world-renowned soloists, with thoughtful, eclectic programming that effortlessly blends beloved classical works by composers including Debussy, Bach and Schubert, with their own virtuosic and surprising takes on Radiohead, Beyoncé, The Beatles and others. Comprised of Australian classical guitarist Rupert Boyd and American cellist Laura Metcalf, the duo has performed around the world, from Kathmandu to Hawaii, and from Sydney to their home in New York City. Their debut album reached No. 3 on the Billboard charts, and to date has received over 5 million streams on Spotify, and recent appearances include Caramoor, Moab Music Festival, Newport Classical, The Morgan Library, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

"They play like one, with a harmony of purpose as sure as their intonation" – Gramophone

"The pair have an easy, natural chemistry that translates to every style they tackle." – Classical Guitar Magazine

"There is a sense of lightness and joy that permeates Boyd Meets Girl, the works are uniformly a pleasure to listen to, but there is also plenty to sink your teeth into." – Limelight Magazine

ALBUMS: Boyd Meets Girl has released two albums, which are frequently broadcast on radio stations around the world, including SiriusXM, New York's WQXR and ABC Classic. Their most recent album, Songs of Love & Despair, was described by Gramophone as "beguiling... fascinating... enchanting... their mutual understanding is manifest in every bar, not least the way they listen to each other."
